

Contribution to India's COVID-19 Relief Efforts by U.S. Industry (2021)

Contributions as per company announcements
U.S. Company	USD
Accenture	$2,50,00,000.00
Amazon	$50,00,000.00
Amway	$11,00,000.00
Boeing	$1,00,00,000.00
Caterpillar	$24,00,000.00
Cheniere	$4,00,000.00
Citibank	$2,70,00,000.00
Coca-cola	$70,00,000.00
Cognizant	$85,00,000.00
Fluor	$63,000.00
Ford	$2,00,000.00
Goldman Sachs	$1,00,00,000.00
Google	$3,35,00,000.00
Honeywell	$30,00,000.00
HPE	$4,40,000.00
John Deere	$27,00,000.00
JP Morgan	$28,00,000.00
Kimberly-Clark	$25,00,000.00

Lockheed Martin	$4,00,000.00
LyondellBasell	$1,00,000.00
Mars	$23,00,000.00
Mastercard	$1,00,00,000.00
Merck/MSD	$50,00,000.00
Mondelez	$20,00,000.00
Pfizer	$7,00,00,000.00
P&G	$70,00,000.00
PWC	$20,00,000.00
Qualcomm	$40,00,000.00
Rockwell Automation	$40,000.00
Salesforce	$21,00,000.00
Sannam S4	$1,00,000.00
Texas Instruments	$4,25,000.00
Thermo Fisher	$1,00,00,000.00
Timken	$10,00,000.00
Trimble	$35,000.00
United Health	$25,00,000.00
UPS	$10,00,000.00
UST	$14,00,000.00
Walmart/Flipkart	$20,00,000.00
Wells Fargo	$30,00,000.00
Total	$26,80,03,000.00
	$268.00 USD Million
	₹ 19,56,42,19,000.00 INR
	₹ 1,956.42 INR Crore

Contribution to India's COVID-19 Relief Efforts by U.S. Industry (2021)

S. No.	Date	U.S. Company	Contribution	Details
1	4 th May	Accenture	Accenture stands in solidarity with India. We have made a fresh pledge of USD 25M (~INR 185 crore) for pandemic relief efforts in addition to ongoing investments in our people and communities	ONE Accenture - standing by our people and communities (linkedin.com)
2	5 th May, 15 th May 19 th May	Amazon	Amazon is fully funding the first lot of 100 ventilators from the 1,000 Medtronic ventilators to be delivered to India starting May 5 To address the growing customer demand and shortage of critical medical equipment, Amazon India is working with sellers on its marketplace to help them bring in about 9,000 oxygen concentrators for customers in India. These are now available for purchase for consumers and business customers. Amazon's global procurement teams are helping interested sellers from India connect with leading global suppliers to enable them to procure oxygen concentrators for customers in need, while simplifying supply chain complexities and facilitating the overall process As India grapples with a severe healthcare crisis due to the second wave of COVID-19, Amazon US is leveraging its scale and resources to support India's fight against the	Amazon joins U.S. Chamber of Commerce's Global Task Force to bring in ventilators to help India combat COVID-19 (aboutamazon.in) Amazon India's 2021 COVID Blog: Updates on measure we're taking to address the pandemic in 2021 (aboutamazon.in) Amazon US delivers critical medical equipment worth over $5M to help India fight COVID-19 (aboutamazon.in)

			devastating impact of the pandemic. Amazon US is sending critical medical equipment worth over USD 5 million to support hospitals and other COVID care facilities across India. As part of this, critical life-saving equipment including 82 anesthesia ventilators, 1238 BiPAP machines and 60 ventilators have already reached India. The medical equipment will be distributed to Amazon's on-the-ground community partners such as the American India Foundation, ACT Grants and Swasth, who will distribute to verified hospitals and nonprofit organizations across the country to ensure it reaches communities where it is needed the most
3	5 th May	Amway	Amway contributed $500,000 to a foundation lead by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce that will deliver critical assistance and medical supplies to India including 1,000 ventilators and 25,000 oxygen concentrators. Additionally, the David & Carol Van Andel Family Foundation provided a generous gift of $250,000 to further these efforts The Amway team in India has already done a lot to combat COVID-19 and provide relief to the many people, healthcare workers, and businesses impacted by the pandemic. Amway India launched the COVID-19 Relief Program and has contributed more than INR 2.50 Crores, USD $350,000, toward multiple COVID-19 relief initiatives	Amway Leads with Heart in India Amid COVID-19 Crisis (amwayglobal.com)
4	30 th April	BAE Systems	To help rural communities in India hit by Covid-19, we've made a donation to Goonj which, alongside many other charities, is working tirelessly to provide vital resources as India battles one of the worst waves of the pandemic so far	https://www.baesystems.com/en/feature/supporting-covid-19-relief-efforts-in-india https://twitter.com/BAESystemsplc/status/1388175092639744014?s=20

5	30 th April	Boeing	Boeing announced a $10 million emergency assistance package for India to support the country's response to the current surge in COVID-19 cases. The assistance from Boeing will be directed to organizations providing relief, including medical supplies and emergency healthcare for communities and families battling COVID-19 The funds are backing a fully equipped 100 bed field hospital with ICU in Bangalore, two 100 bed field hospitals in Uttar Pradesh, an oxygen plant and ambulances for a hospital near Chennai, CT Scanner equipment for a facility in Telangana and Bihar, oxygen equipment and ambulances for a facility in Uttar Pradesh, and a number of mobile testing labs	Boeing Launches $10 Million Emergency Assistance Package to Support India's COVID-19 Response - Apr 30, 2021 (mediaroom.com) Letter addressed to Union finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman by Karnataka Chief Minister BS Yediyurappa  Boeing Karnataka Oxygenated Beds.jfi https://twitter.com/nsitharaman/status/1390682351944962049?s=20 https://twitter.com/SELCOFoundation/status/1399310427624927232?s=1006
6	13 th May	Bloom Energy	Bloom Energy is mobilizing to help our friends and colleagues in India during the #COVID19 crisis with our innovative oxygen splitter technology, which enables more than one patient to receive oxygen simultaneously	https://twitter.com/Bloom_Energy/status/1392896250656210945?s=20
7	6 th May	Caterpillar	The Caterpillar Foundation is giving $1 million to help India's health system deliver care to families and communities by funding medical equipment, including oxygen concentrators and oxygen plant optimization, as well as critical medical supplies, across identified hot spot locations. In addition to the Foundation's efforts, Caterpillar India is providing an initial contribution of $1.4 million, enabling an additional supply of oxygen, donating beds with ventilator support to hospitals, supporting vaccination drives and setting up temporary relief shelters.	Caterpillar Caterpillar and the Caterpillar Foundation Donate Additional $3.4 Million in COVID-19 Relief

			Independent Cat [®] dealers are also contributing oxygen solutions to address the shortage
8	28 th May	Cheniere	Cheniere has partnered with Project Cure to deliver approx. $400k medical equipment and supplies including 70 oxygen concentrators and 120 hospital beds to Telangana as they combat the COVID crisis. Read press release	https://twitter.com/USISPFForum/status/1398334198847582225?s=20
9	13 th May	ChildFund India	ChildFund India, in collaboration with Project HOPE, a global health and humanitarian aid group, is once again proactively responding to the COVID crisis for vulnerable communities in the states of Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Karnataka, Telangana and other. Project HOPE and ChildFund India aim to ensure availability of basic medical equipment at local health systems - the Primary & Secondary health care centers, which serve as the COVID Care centers, in the highly vulnerable districts of these states, assist frontline workers with PPE and medical essential kits and improve access, affordability, and accessibility of the COVID -19 vaccination and related materials for all vulnerable groups	Collaborating with Project HOPE Childfund India Ngo
10	April, May	Cisco	The Cisco Foundation has launched a disaster response campaign to benefit responding nonprofits: Association for India's Development (AID), Americares, CARE, Direct Relief, Habitat for Humanity India, Oxfam India, Rashtrottana Parishat, Sewa International, and Youth for Seva	2021 Disaster Relief - COVID-19 India Fund Bright Funds

			The Cisco Foundation will match eligible donations up to $10,000 per employee. Donations will not be counted toward employees' annual $25,000 match limit
11	5 th May	Citibank	Citi commits an additional INR200 crore (US$27 million) pledge over the next three financial years towards India's recovery and relief efforts against COVID-19, as the country experiences a surge in cases. Of the total pledged amount, INR75 crore (US$10 million) is being allocated immediately towards the procurement of oxygen supplies, adding beds to hospitals, diagnostic testing systems, personal protection kits and other supplies for India's frontline healthcare workers. The funds will also be utilized towards food and hygiene supplies for low-income families	Citi Wide Press Release Citi India (citibank.co.in)
12	29 th April	Coca-Cola	Coca-Cola India commits initial contribution of INR 50 crores towards facilitating vaccination, providing safety kits, creating awareness and distributing beverages	Coca-Cola India pledges to help #StopTheSpread – Positively impacting over 10 lakh lives Coca-Cola India
13	31 st May	Cognizant	Cognizant has said it is investing around $8.5 million (approximately Rs 60 crore) for its Covid-19 response programme- Operation C3. This includes delivery of essential supplies to employees and the larger community, setting up Covid care centres, and conducting vaccination drives	https://twitter.com/Cognizant/status/1400259706866831362?s=20
14	23 rd May	Deloitte	Punit Renjen, Deloitte Global CEO: Working with the Government of #Haryana, Deloitte has helped launch Sanjeevani Pariyojana (the life project). The initiative will "expand the hospital ward" by delivering	https://www.linkedin.com/posts/punitrenjen_sanjeevani-pariyojana-haryana-sarkar-covid-activity-6802628497471795200-rXKR

			home care to patients with mild to moderate Covid-19 symptoms, freeing hospitals to treat the critically ill. We are launching the pilot today in the district of Karnal, with a full roll-out across the state in the coming week	VIDEO on Sanjeevani Pariyojana (the life project). Sanjeevani Pariyojana Haryana sarkar COVID Upchar Film 2021 - YouTube
15	April, May	Dow	Dow and the Dow Company Foundation provide immediate assistance in response to the current COVID-19 healthcare crisis in India, through a partnership with The US India Friendship Alliance, Inc, an affiliate of the U.S. – India Strategic Partnership Forum. Additional support is being provided to community-based organizations in reducing and stopping COVID-19 transmission rates in India	Coronavirus Contributions & Relief Efforts Dow Corporate
16	4 th May	Eli Lilly	Lilly accelerating baricitinib's availability in India following receipt of permission for restricted emergency use as a COVID-19 therapy via donations and licensing agreements	Lilly accelerating baricitinib's availability in India following receipt of permission for restricted emergency use as a COVID-19 therapy via donations and licensing agreements Eli Lilly and Company https://twitter.com/LillyPad/status/1389534434999812097?s=20
17	30 th April 16 th May	FedEx	FedEx delivers critical healthcare supplies to India to support the fight against COVID-19 FedEx Express, a subsidiary of FedEx Corp. and one of the world's largest express transportation companies, today announced the arrival of a second dedicated charter flight carrying critical medical aid to India . This is part of the company's continuous relief efforts to support India's fight against the recent COVID-19 surge.	FedEx delivers critical healthcare supplies to India to support the fight against COVID-19 FedEx Extends Support and Donates Second Charter Flight to Deliver Critical Aid to India
18	May	Flex	For employees who would like to personally help and contribute to relief efforts, Flex has established an	GlobalGiving - Flex Disaster Relief employee donation-matching program through GlobalGiving. The Flex Foundation will match every dollar donated by our employees through this effort up to 20,000 USD

19	May	Fluor	To support employees and families in medical need, Fluor airlifted 10 oxygen concentrators from Houston to New Delhi in May 2021. Fluor's New Delhi, India office donated nearly $63,000 to partially fund the development of low-cost COVID-19 testing kits for mass production through an initiative by the Indian Institute of Technology, Madras. The New Delhi office also participated in a flagship program, "Mission Salamati," to provide 800,000 meals to families of migrant and daily-wage workers who lost their only source of income	Fluor's Response to the COVID-19 Pandemic
20	May	Ford	To help mitigate the surge of coronavirus cases in India, Ford is donating 5 million surgical masks, 100K N95 masks and 50K gowns to the area. In addition, Ford Fund is donating $200,000 to support organizations providing essential COVID-19 relief in India and Brazil	https://twitter.com/FordFund/status/1387905688056303619?s=20 GlobalGiving - Ford Disaster Relief
21	26 th April	Gilead Sciences	Gilead Sciences, Inc. today announced that in response to the rapid increase in COVID-19 cases in India, the company is providing its voluntary licensing partners with technical assistance, support for the addition of new local manufacturing facilities and the donation of active pharmaceutical ingredient (API) to rapidly scale up production of remdesivir. Remdesivir is approved in India for restricted emergency use for the treatment of suspected or laboratory confirmed COVID-19 in adults and children hospitalized with severe disease. In addition to providing	Gilead Sciences Announces Steps to Expand Availability of Remdesivir in India support to its licensees to expand their local manufacturing capacity, Gilead will also donate at least 450,000 vials of Veklury® (remdesivir) to help address the immediate needs of Indian patients

22	29 th April	Goldman Sachs	The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. announced an additional $10 million commitment to support relief and recovery efforts in India, as the country experiences a surge in COVID-19 cases and deaths. The additional funding for India will focus on support for frontline health facilities that are leading the fight against COVID-19 in cities such as Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Mumbai and New Delhi, including ongoing vaccination efforts. The funds will also be deployed to support initiatives promoting mental health in communities across India and will help economic recovery within those communities.	Goldman Sachs Press Releases - Goldman Sachs Commits Additional $10 Million to Support COVID-19 Relief and Recovery Efforts in India
23	26 th April 17 th June	Google	Google announced 135 Crore INR ($18 million USD) in new funding for India. This includes two grants from Google.org, Google’s philanthropic arm, totaling 20 Crore INR ($2.6 million USD). The first is to Give India to provide cash assistance to families hit hardest by the crisis to help with their everyday expenses. The second will go to UNICEF to help get urgent medical supplies, including oxygen and testing equipment, to where it’s needed most in India Google.org will support procurement and installation of approximately 80 oxygen generation plants in healthcare facilities in high-need and rural locations with new grants totalling approximately $15 million (109 Crore INR) to GiveIndia and PATH. The two organizations will work together to oversee the oxygen program, providing project management support. PATH will identify the target locations and provide technical assistance, working with state	Official Google India Blog: Supporting India during the current COVID crisis (googleblog.com) Broadening our COVID-19 support in India (blog.google)

			governments and other authorities, and complete the installation of the plants To further bolster these efforts, Google.org will provide a $500,000 (3.6 Crore INR) grant to nonprofit ARMMAN. ARMMAN will run skilling programs for 180,000 Accredited Social Health Activists (ASHAs) and 40,000 Auxiliary Nurse Midwives (ANMs) in 15 Indian states. It will also set up a call center to provide additional help and advice for ASHAs and ANMs where required
24	5 th May 21 st May	Honeywell	Honeywell has committed over US$3 million in Covid relief for India We are partnering with state and local governments to enhance healthcare capacities across multiple states, including setting up COVID care centers and critical care centers. We are also donating essential medical supplies such as oxygen concentrators, ventilators, N95 respirators, and PPE kits," Honeywell India President Akshay Bellare said in a statement	Honeywell Demonstrates Support For India's Covid Relief Efforts Honeywell Establishes COVID Care Centers Across Five States
25	16 th June	HPE	As an organization whose purpose is to advance the way people live and work, HPE has responded with numerous initiatives to support local communities during this pandemic," said Som Satsangi, MD – India, HPE Hewlett Packard Enterprise (HPE) announced that it has deployed 53 COVID-19 Vaccination Centers across Assam, Karnataka, Uttar Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Rajasthan and Chandigarh in collaboration with respective state governments and NGO partners	Hewlett Packard Enterprise deploys 53 COVID-19 Vaccination Centers across 6 states in India HPE

			Additionally, HPE also announced that its 50 COVID-19 Test Labs and Outpatient Department (OPD) Centers have collectively facilitated over 500,000 patient visits across 14 states in India. Launched in May 2020, these facilities are designed to provide additional authorized COVID-19 testing facilities and isolation beds, thereby assisting the Government of India and state governments in their efforts to contain the COVID-19 pandemic Financial support for the fight against COVID-19: The HPE Foundation has provided a grant of INR 8 million to UNICEF’s emergency appeal to boost access to oxygen and testing. Separately, the HPE Foundation’s funds for the Red Cross Disaster Responder Program are also being activated to support the Indian Red Cross in providing ambulance services, medical care, oxygen, and for the vaccination campaigns. HPE has also launched a special matching campaign for employee donations, which have already raised close to INR 24 million for UNICEF’s COVID-19 relief efforts in India
26	18 th May	John Deere	John Deere announced today commitments of over $2.7 million (USD) to provide urgent medical resources and ongoing state support to assist India in its fight against COVID-19	John Deere Commits $2.7 million to India in Fight Against COVID-19
27	18 th May	J.P. Morgan	As India continues to deal with the devastating impact of a second wave of COVID-19 infections, colleagues around the world have reached out to ask how they can help alongside the firm. With this in mind, we wanted to provide an update on our support efforts for employees and the	Continuing our Support for India During New COVID-19 Wave (jpmorgan.com)

			broader community in India, as well as details on how employees can contribute We have committed $2.8 million towards immediate India-wide coronavirus relief efforts, such as providing support to the public health system to improve the capacity of small hospitals, enabling them to provide treatment for greater numbers of affected patients. Other contributions will go toward providing food and essential items to low-income communities across India
28	10 th May	Kimberly-Clark	To assist with critical healthcare needs facing India, Kimberly-Clark is committing USD 2.5 million (INR 18 Crore) to covid-19 relief efforts, including support to UNICEF of USD 2.2 million (INR 17 Crore) contributing towards lifesaving medical equipment	https://twitter.com/KCCorp/status/1391729263649382401?s=20
29	20 th May	Kroll Charitable Foundation (formerly Duff & Phelps Charitable Foundation)	As the spread of COVID19 across India continues to intensify, communities are in need of resources. Today we announced grants from the Kroll Charitable Foundation to directly support India relief efforts	The Duff & Phelps Charitable Foundation has now transitioned its brand to the Kroll Charitable Foundation. The impact of our Foundation reflects the generosity and spirit of the firm's colleagues, who believe in the power of contributing to their communities https://twitter.com/KrollWire/status/1395411516929843201?s=20
30	6 th May	Lockheed Martin	Providing Humanitarian Relief to India: Effective immediately, we are providing $250,000 to help U.S.- and India-based organizations procure more than 500 portable oxygen concentrators that will be donated to the Government of India for distribution	Lockheed Martin Continues Accelerated Payments to Small and Vulnerable Suppliers Lockheed Martin

			We also are pledging $150,000 in charitable donations to U.S.-based non-profit organizations supporting relief efforts. We also activated our employee workplace giving program to support India humanitarian relief We are offering critical medical supplies including face coverings, face shields and bottles of hand sanitizer from our surplus supply, to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation for distribution in India We are supporting the Global Task Force on Pandemic Response, a newly formed, U.S.-based, public-private partnership organized by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and supported by Business Roundtable
31	13 th May	Lyndell Basell	LyndellBasell is donating $100,000 to the U.S. India Friendship Alliance, helping the organization provide 250 oxygen concentrators to hospitals and medical facilities across India. Amid the country's COVID-19 crisis, patients are in serious need of oxygen with demand increasing every day	LyndellBasell Supports COVID-19 Crisis in India with Donation to U.S. India Friendship Alliance LyndellBasell https://twitter.com/LyndellBasell/status/1392796770682429440?s=20
32	9 th June	Mars	Mars Donates USD$2.3 Million (INR 16.7 Crores) Support Affected Communities with Critical Medical Equipment in India	Mars Donates USD$2.3 Million (INR 16.7 Crores) Support Affected Communities with Critical Medical Equipment in India Mars, Incorporated
33	26 th April	Mastercard	Mastercard today announced a US$10 million (approximately 75 crore rupees) commitment to directly address critical COVID-related needs in India The philanthropic efforts, delivered through the Mastercard Impact Fund, will focus on three priority areas – access to	Mastercard to Donate $10 Million to Address India's Covid Crisis

			hospital resources, access to additional oxygen supplies, and continued support of the company's employees across the country
34	13 th May	Medtronic	Medtronic plc and the Medtronic Foundation announced an additional $3M USD for COVID-19 relief efforts – a combination of financial resources, personal protective equipment (PPE) donations, and Medtronic employee engagement – focused on underserved areas of India, Brazil, the United States, and other global regions. This latest COVID-19 response expands Medtronic and Medtronic Foundation's COVID-19 support to $56M USD	Medtronic and Medtronic Foundation Partner to Address COVID-19 Surges with Focus on Equity Medtronic
35	27 th April	Merck	Merck known as MSD outside the United States and Canada, announced today that the company has entered into non-exclusive voluntary licensing agreements for molnupiravir with five established Indian generics manufacturers. Separately, Merck will also donate more than $5 million worth of oxygen-production equipment, masks, hand sanitizer and financial aid to support relief efforts in India.	Amid Humanitarian Crisis in India, Merck Announces Voluntary Licensing Agreements with Five Indian Generics Manufacturers to Accelerate and Expand Global Access to Molnupiravir, an Investigational Oral Therapeutic for the Treatment of COVID-19 - Merck.com
36	18 th May	Michael & Susan Dell Foundation	Our team at the Michael & Susan Dell Foundation has been working to find meaningful ways to support our healthcare workers, and we are doing so by addressing some of the shortages currently in the system, such as: Oxygen concentrators, cylinders, and plants	We are in this together as we tide wave 2 of the COVID crisis in India (linkedin.com)

			Tele-medicine and makeshift healthcare facilities to balance the burden and prevent the need for intensive/ critical medical care Vaccination efforts
37	5 th May	Microsoft	Microsoft Philanthropies has been in close contact with non-profit partners and government organizations leading the relief efforts in India to understand how we can best assist in the response. We believe a coordinated approach is the best way to help and we are working in partnership with humanitarian organizations and others in the private sector	Microsoft mobilizing resources to help Covid response in India - Microsoft On the Issues
38	4 th May	Mondelēz	Mondelēz International commits US$ 2 million to support Covid-19 Relief Efforts in India	Press Releases India Mondelez International, Inc.
39	3 rd May	PepsiCo	The PepsiCo Foundation has partnered with Sustainable Environment and Ecological Development Society (SEEDS), a leading not-for-profit organization, to launch an extensive community relief outreach program to support Government of India's ongoing efforts against Covid-19. As part of the partnership, SEEDS will drive Covid-19 vaccinations for the community at large, set up Covid care Centres equipped with beds and medical facilities including oxygen cylinders. Additionally, oxygen concentrators will also be provided to Central Government for distribution to various Government hospitals. The entire community relief program will be rolled out across the country with a special focus on five states -- Maharashtra, Punjab, West Bengal, Uttar Pradesh and Telangana	PepsiCo Foundation partners with SEEDS to launch community vaccination drives and setup Covid care centres in India PepsiCo (pepsicoindia.co.in)

40	6 th May	PerkinElmer	As India faces a second wave of COVID-19, PerkinElmer Inc., a global leader committed to innovating for a healthier world, will donate 1 million PerkinElmer® COVID-19 Antigen Tests to the Government of India to help accelerate testing capabilities across the country	https://twitter.com/PerkinElmer/status/1391012513131769860?s=20 PerkinElmer to Donate 1 Million Rapid COVID-19 Antigen Tests to Combat the Pandemic's Second Wave in India PerkinElmer, Inc.
41	3 rd May	Pfizer	Albert Bourla, Chairman & CEO Pfizer: Today we have announced we are mobilizing the largest humanitarian relief effort in our company's history to help the people of India fight the vicious second wave of coronavirus that is currently ravaging the nation Right now, Pfizer colleagues at distribution centers in the U.S., Europe and Asia are hard at work rushing shipments of Pfizer medicines that the Government of India has identified as part of its COVID treatment protocol. We are donating these medicines to help make sure that every COVID-19 patients in every public hospital across the country can have access to the Pfizer medicines they need free of charge. This includes steroid medications to reduce inflammation, anticoagulants to help prevent blood clotting and antibiotics that treat secondary bacterial infections. This effort has the potential to impact the lives of hundreds of thousands of patients across India over the next 90 days. These medicines, valued at more than $70 million, will be made available immediately, and we will	https://www.linkedin.com/posts/albert-bourla_supporting-india-in-its-time-of-need-activity-6794836819809726464-8Mr5 https://twitter.com/pfizer/status/1389203084879011840?s=20 Video Message of Albert Bourla, Chairman & CEO Pfizer Supporting India in Its Time of Need pfpfizeruscom Text of Video Message:  Albert Bourla_Pfizer Statement_Covid Inc

			work closely with the government and our NGO partners to get them to where they are needed most. This effort, in combination with Pfizer Foundation funding that supports humanitarian organizations providing essential and life-saving equipment to India, such as ventilators, oxygen concentrators and consumables, is our most comprehensive humanitarian relief response ever
42	28 th April	P&G	In these tough times, we're coming together as one in our fight against COVID-19 in India. In the current situation and going forward, vaccines play a critical role in containing the spread of the virus. As a part of our company's #PGSurakshaIndia program, we are donating INR 50 Cr towards 10 lakh vaccine doses for 5 lakh citizens —vaccine doses to help 100 citizens for every one employee we have in India	P&G India Supports COVID-19 Vaccine Efforts to Protect Employees, Support Communities (pg.com)
43	5 th May	PwC	PwC US and PwC Charitable Foundation commit $2 million of COVID support to India	PwC US and PwC Charitable Foundation commit $2 million of COVID support to India
44	30 th April	Qualcomm	Responding to India's current Covid-19 situation, Qualcomm Foundation and Qualcomm India pledge USD $4 million to help India fight the pandemic	Responding to India's current Covid-19 situation (qualcomm.com)
45	4 th May 26 th May	Raytheon Technologies Pratt & Whitney	Raytheon Technologies, which employs about 5,000 people in India, is acting quickly to protect the health of those colleagues, their families and their communities. The company is donating 1,000 oxygen concentrators that will be provided through the U.S.-India Strategic Partnership Forum to the Red Cross. These life-saving devices will be distributed where the need is the greatest, including those	https://newsroom.prattwhitney.com/2021-05-04-RTX-and-its-companies-including-Pratt-Whitney-send-life-saving-machines-to-India-for-COVID-19-relief

		Collins Aerospace	communities where our employees work and live. Meanwhile, our teams are actively working on securing resources to provide PPE, vaccines and other needed supplies The company is retrofitting four mobile oxygen filling stations that will be delivered to the Indian Red Cross Society in New Delhi. The trucks, originally built to refill oxygen on military aircraft, are uniquely suited to fill a critical gap in India's oxygen transportation infrastructure and support COVID relief efforts there. The trucks are produced at the Lübeck, Germany, location of Collins Aerospace, a Raytheon Technologies business. Each can carry up to 270,000 liters of oxygen to areas in need; they can deliver supplemental oxygen to hospitals and help fill portable oxygen cylinders	https://www.rtx.com/news/2021/04/21/india-covid-response Raytheon Technologies retrofitting Collins Aerospace oxygen trucks to aid COVID-19 relief efforts in India
46	5 th May	Rockwell Automation	Rockwell Automation today announced a $40,000 donation to the United Way's India COVID-19 Relief Fund. Our team members, business partners, communities and customers in India are deeply impacted by this wave of infections. Our hearts go out to all of them and their families during these dire times," said Patricia Contreras, vice president, Public Affairs	https://twitter.com/3BLNews/status/1390032315657572355?s=20
47	7 th June	Salesforce	We are deeply committed to our people and community here in India and we firmly believe that business can be a powerful platform for change. Which is why we announcing a $1.1 million donation to United Way of Hyderabad, Concern India Foundation, Rise Against Hunger India and Youth for Seva to support the COVID response across India. Salesforce is partnering with these	Standing Together and Supporting our Communities: Covid-19 Relief Efforts - Salesforce Blog

			organisations to help support their focus on procuring medical equipment and supplies, administering vaccine awareness and distribution, building community isolation centers and providing food security for the most vulnerable populations in the country. A global employee giving and matching campaign will further contribute to supporting various organisations in India. To date, the campaign has generated more than $1 million including the matching by Salesforce. An external fundraising site through Give India received donations from employees and friends of Salesforce. These corporate and employee donations will impact the lives of more than 2,00,000 people across the country
48	May	Sannam S4	The COVID crisis in India continues to be dire. Healthcare systems in many cities are collapsing, hospital staff are overwhelmed and many patients are dying due to shortages of oxygen and lack of other critical medical supplies and treatment. Because of the scale of this crisis, providing the most basic care to Indian citizens requires a global effort. In response to the crisis, our Board has approved an immediate $100,000 / £75,000 COVID emergency relief fund to be deployed towards impactful COVID relief programs in India	https://sannams4.com/covid-relief/ https://twitter.com/Sannam_S4/status/1399371607055949838?s=20
49	8 th May	Texas Instruments	A team from @TXInstrumentsIN met CM @BSYBJP today and announced their contribution of 86 bed Modular ICU Unit worth about Rs.3 Cr as part of their CSR initiative. These 86 ICU Beds will be installed at RGICD, Bengaluru to augment health infrastructure for battling Covid-19	Texas Instruments IN on Twitter: "Thank you @CMofKarnataka. BLR has been our home since 1985, and as part of our commitment to the city we hope this #criticalcare extension unit at RGICD, in

				collaboration with Vibha and @ModulusHousing will help. We thank Govt. of KA for their valuable support." / Twitter CM of Karnataka on Twitter: "A team from @TXInstrumentsIN met CM @BSYBJP today and announced their contribution of 86 bed Modular ICU Unit worth about Rs.3 Cr as part of their CSR initiative. These 86 ICU Beds will be installed at RGICD, Bengaluru to augment health infrastructure for battling Covid-19. (1/2) https://t.co/GJDzHOjMuR" / Twitter
50	12 th May	Thermo Fisher	Thermo Fisher Scientific commits USD 10 million to support India's fight against COVID-19. As part of the commitment, the company is directing more than USD 1 million to non-governmental and non-profit organizations that are directly serving the people impacted by the pandemic. The remaining USD 9 million donations are extended in the form of COVID-19 testing products, personal protective equipment, and other critical supplies from across the businesses	https://www.linkedin.com/posts/amitchopra1_thermo-fisher-scientific-commits-usd-10-million-activity-6798789078931271680-NbfY
51	April, May	Timken	"Between Timken Foundation and Timken in India we are spending more than 1 Mil USD for Covid relief" Mr. Sanjay Koul, CMD, Timken India Ltd.
52	24 th May	Trimble	Trimble Information Technologies India stepped forward to join the battle against COVID 19. Rajan Aiyer, MD, South Asia and Sudarshan, Director, Operations, India met Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu, MK Stalin and handed over a contribution of INR 25 lakh towards Tamil Nadu Disaster Management Authority	 Trimble_Covid 19_India_24 May 2020

53	4 th May	United Airlines	United Airlines Expands India Relief Efforts with Online Fundraising Campaign Airline providing up to 5 million bonus miles for donations and matching up to $40,000 in cash donations to disaster relief partners	United Airlines Expands India Relief Efforts with Online Fundraising Campaign - United Hub
54	5 th May	UnitedHealth	UnitedHealth Group through the United Health Foundation, is donating $1 million (₹7.4 crores) in response to the growing coronavirus crisis in India. This donation extends the company's global commitment to fighting COVID-19, including a previous donation of $1.5 million (₹11 crores) to India	https://www.unitedhealthgroup.com/newsroom/2021/2021-5-5-uhg-support-covid-19-india.html
55	April, May	United Way	United Way is working to provide emergency response through distribution of Hospital Support Package, Family Essential Kits, Kits for Shelter Homes & Quarantine Centers, and Kits for Frontline Workers. We are partnering with various stakeholders (companies, organizations and the community) to actively respond to the pandemic in light of the current situation and impending crisis	COVID 19 Response - United Way of Delhi (unitedwaydelhi.org) United Way of Mumbai (unitedwaymumbai.org) United Way of Bengaluru (uwbengaluru.org) UnitedAgainstCOVID-19 United Way Kolkata (uwkolkata.org)
56	June, July	United Way Bengaluru	Working together on a common mission - getting each and every one vaccinated in partnership with AMCHAM India	https://twitter.com/uwbe/status/1412326983334203398?s=12 https://twitter.com/uwbe/status/1410484599415734279?s=20 https://twitter.com/uwbe/status/1409111399062642691?s=20

				https://twitter.com/uwbe/status/1406261439191388164?s=20 https://www.linkedin.com/posts/united-way-of-bengaluru-indiafightscovid19together-indiafightscovid19-activity-6812026061002555392-76nJ https://www.linkedin.com/posts/first-american-india-pvt-ltd-fai-peoplefirst-vaccination-activity-6812423953919959040-VJMr
57	5 th May	UPS	The UPS Foundation announced a $1 million commitment to fight the COVID-19 surge in India. The pledge is a combination of emergency funding, in-kind transportation movements and technical expertise to provide urgent relief, as well as strategic support	Lives are on the line (ups.com)
58	8 th June	UST	UST, a leading digital transformation solutions company, is extending a much-needed helping hand to COVID-19 pandemic relief in India by working closely with governments, hospitals, relief workers, and non-governmental organizations (NGOs) across the country. Company commits to minimum of INR 10 crore to support Covid-19 relief in India	UST Extends a Helping Hand Amidst the COVID-19 Pandemic in India
59	30 th April, May	Walmart, the Walmart Foundation, Flipkart and PhonePe	Walmart is mobilizing its global resources to further expand support for COVID-19 relief efforts in India. Walmart, the Walmart Foundation, Flipkart and PhonePe, along with Walmart's Global Technology and Sourcing hubs, are collaborating to counter oxygen shortages, support the national vaccination drive and donate to organizations making a difference in communities nationwide	Walmart, Flipkart, PhonePe and the Walmart Foundation Leverage Global Resources to Scale Initiatives in Support of India's Pandemic Battle

			The Flipkart Group together with Walmart and PhonePe, in partnership with International Medical Corps, Doctors For You, and Americares, is committed to helping our communities in India battle the devastating COVID-19 surge. We are leveraging our global supply chain in combination with our trusted local networks to send life-saving equipment to India.	COVID-19 - Precautions and preparedness measures at the Flipkart group
60	4 th May	Wells Fargo	As part of its response to the ongoing COVID-19-related humanitarian crisis in India, Wells Fargo & Company (NYSE: WFC) is committing more than $3 million through nongovernmental organizations to increase hospital capacity, supply oxygen concentrators and critical medical equipment, provide emergency transportation, and support health care workers. Wells Fargo has several offices in India, and the company has taken steps throughout the pandemic to help ensure the health and safety of its employees in India and globally through remote work and enhanced benefits	Wells Fargo Newsroom - Wells Fargo Responds to India COVID-19 Crisis (wf.com)